Savaunah to load for Europe.

[Special telegram to the Dispatch.] PORTSMOUTH, VA., May 14.-Information from Winton, N. C., to-day informs me that last night between 8 and 9 o'clock the steamer Ruggles, Captain Parker, caught fire when off Gates's Ferry, on the Chowan river. The fire originated near the boiler. and spread so rapidly that all efforts to check it were unavailing. The steamer was scuttled in seven feet of water. She burned down to the water's edge, and her cargo, which consisted of 70,000 feet of heart-pine lumber, valued at $14,000, was a total loss.

Letter from Danville. [Correspondence of the Richmond Dispatch.] PROSPECT OF A TOBACCO FAIR-NEWS ITEMS,

DANVILLE, VA., May 18, 1874. At a called meeting of the Tobacco Association held on the 11th, Mr. E. M. Page moved that a committee of seven be appointed to report as to the propriety of holding a leaf-tobacco fair on the 8th of July under the auspices of the Tobacco Association, and to suggest arrangements if the measure be found advisable. Resolution adopted. The committee: Messrs, E. M. Pace, J. M. Neal, W. J. Fowlkes, Daniel Coleman, L. B. Conway, W. P. Graves, J. B. Faulkner. On motion of Mr. R. G. Pace, the Sales Committee were authorized after the 11th to require the sales of tobacco to be conducted at the rate of ninety parcels to the hour. Gentlemen from the country report that the fly has done great damage to the plantbeds in the western part of this county and the eastern border of Henry county. A revival has been going on at the Mainago, has been repaired, and sailed to-day for Mr. Lambeth, the pastor, has had the assistance of Rev. W. C. Norman, of Caswell, N. C., and of the resident Methodist ministers.

> It was announced last night that fifteen had professed conversion. Mr. Cook, the overseer of the street-hands, has been busy for the last three days cleaning off the ground in front of the new courtbuilding. These gentlemen are to elect some candidate for the post a fair and impartial examination and report the name of the 30th instant. ALPHA.

REV. Da. Hoge.-This gentleman delivered on Monday night a most entertaining lecture in the Presbyterian church in this place. Sectarianism, its uses, abuses, and suggestive modes of correcting its evils, force, and that peculiarly attractive style and manner which distinguish this eminent and cultivated orator, Dr. Hoge fully sustained his well-established character as a platform speaker. Withal, his well chosen words conveyed very practical truths. It has been well said, that while the broad mantle of charity bides a multitude of sins it is elastic enough to cover a multitude of opinions. The folly of intolerance was presented with great force .- Farmville Mercury.

Postal .- The site of Ellisville, Louisa county, Va., is changed to Woodfolk's store, route of the excursionists have tendered the one mile and a half south, and Thomas H. Woodfolk appointed postmaster, vice Robert Harlow, resigned. The post-office at Central, Gloucester county, Va., is discontinued for want of a candidate; the papers go to Wood's Cross roads.

> HOW THEY MAKE NOMINATIONS IN BALTI-MORE .- "Democratic primary elections will be held to-day in all of the wards for the purpose of electing five delegates from each to which meets the 18th for organization. There will be only one voting place in each ward, and the voting will be conducted according to the registry list. The polls will be open from twelve M. to eight P. M.".
